

Senior Consultant, Unity Solutions (Malaysia)

Your roles and responsibilities:

- Understand and interpret market opportunity and product requirements.
- Engage stakeholders from various departments and divisions to gather business / operations requirements and convert the idea to User Requirement document.
- Work closely with Head of Product, Operation Team, UX Lead, Scrum Master, Technical Lead and Development Team to translate the user requirement into actual deliverables and operationalise product.
- Present the wireframe and mock-up to be discussed and shared with stakeholders.
- Manage the entire product life cycle and its profitability and usability.
- Analyse and prepare report(s) for each product.
- Provide support to internal users/ team members.
- Provide plan for product enhancement and improvisation.

What we need from you:

- At least 3 years working experience in product development and management.
- Good verbal and written English and Bahasa Malaysia communication skills.
- Personality traits – meticulous, pleasant, self-motivated, enthusiastic, result-oriented, responsible, independent, trustworthy, ethical and a team player.
- Other knowledge:
  - a) Excellent writing and communication skills, good analytical skills with excellent people interaction.
  - b) Writing clearly and concisely for technical and non-technical audience
  - c) Technical skills – data analysing, agile methodologies, design and coding, system scalability and site reliability
  - d) Project Management skills/exposure and knowledge in Scrum Methodology
- Previous working background from operation and digital transformation will be an added advantage.
- Possess a Degree in Information Technology, Computer Science/Information Technology or its equivalent.

